“ My aunt Doris was married to my mom's brother, Cecil Hockensmith.

She had children pass away during her life span. She held on to her faith till the very end and she will definitely be rewarded seeing them again in heaven.

She was a member of Faiith Baptist Church and will be missed greatly. My aunt always had a way producing good food, she may had help from her mother inlaw, Mae Brumback, both had a way with food. Thank you Lord for all the good people you put in our lives and this entire family fits this bill.

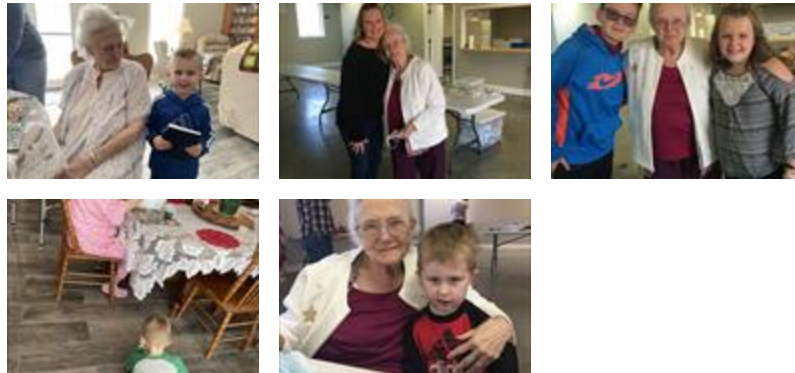

Love you aunt Doris may you rest in peace.
