“ One of my earliest memories of Doug was sitting in floor of his boat, 6 years old, out running a rainstorm after a day of tubing at Dale Hollow Lake...the first of many! What a great soul and kind man, he will be missed, the lake will never be the same. Prayers to all of my aunts, uncles, cousins and of course Patty... who are healing during this time.

Doug lived two houses from me on Fifth Avenue. We had some great conversations about cars and being a member of the Indiana National Guard. One vivid memory was watching him packing his clothing and gear for summer camp. My thoughts and prayers are with his family.
