

Dr. Jose Armando Arguedas Sr.

March 16, 1922 - January 16, 2007

Dr. Armando Arguedas

Frankfort - Dr. Armando Arguedas, 84, of Frankfort, Ky., died peacefully surrounded by family on January 16, 2007. Dr. Arguedas was born in Callao, Peru on March 16, 1922 and was the son of Dr. Luis Alberto Arguedas and Eva Palma Paz Arguedas of Cuzco, Peru.

Dr. Arguedas was an anesthesiologist in Louisville, Ky.

He is survived by his childhood sweetheart, Ileana Pajares Arguedas, his sister Lucha Risso of Lima, Peru, two beautiful children, Armando Luis (Cynthia) Arguedas of Frankfort, Ky., and Patricia (Jack) Howard of Louisville, two adored grandchildren, Amanda Arguedas (Aaron) Meyer of Lexington, Ky., and Steve Arguedas (Melissa) Oliver of Frankfort, Ky.

Expressions of sympathy may be made to the American Heart Association.

Condolences may be expressed at Harrodbrothersfuneralhome.com.

Tribute Wall

“ Dr. Jose Armando Arguedas Sr.

October 06, 2023 at 03:15 PM

“ Lena and Nancy of Hospice would like to offer our condolences for the family of Dr. Argeudas. Our thoughts with you all during your time of loss.

Nancy Lynch - January 24, 2007 at 11:06 AM

“ *Papa, it seems like yesterday that I became your new Daughter in-law. What a joy it has been to have you in my life. I will never forget all the wonderful places that we have been together and I know that you loved me like a Daughter and I loved you as my Papa. You are missed so very much. I was with you when you passed over into that Gloryland and we will see each other again someday. Love you Papa.
Your Cynthia.*

Cynthia Arguedas - January 24, 2007 at 01:03 AM

“ It seems so unreal to me.. maybe seeing you all my life made you seem somehow eternal .I do know I loved you as a dear relative and respected you as a man that took many challenges and overcame them. I hope you are in peace and happy as you deserve.To the family,tia Illy,Armando,Patty,Steve,Amanda a huge hug and hope to see you soon in person .Lucho Risso

Luis Risso - January 21, 2007 at 05:40 PM

CL

“ *My dear friends,
I want to express my deepest sympathy to the Arguedas family. It is never easy to lose a loved one, but what a blessing it is to have special memories to carry with you. The loving family left behind is such a wonderful tribute to the life of Dr. Arguedas. I am sure the Lord is saying "Well done, my good and faithful servant."
With Love,
Carolyn*

Carolyn Lynn - January 21, 2007 at 05:09 PM

DS

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you in this time of sorrow. Trish you look so much like your father. I am so sorry for your loss.

Dorita Stinnett - January 20, 2007 at 10:57 AM

CR

“ Dear tio Armando:

I feel so strange writing this, but I have to admit you are now in the presence of God, which I'm sure is far much better and beautiful. I always hoped that the next time I'd go to the United States I would be able to see you, but now you can see me and I will see you with my heart.

You were and still are someone very special for me.

I'll never forget the years I lived in Louisville. Those years were some of the happiest years I have lived.

Until we meet again.

Your niece who loves you very much.

Chichi

Chichi Risso - January 19, 2007 at 07:47 PM

JF

“ A death in the family is never welcome, but a life well-lived should be celebrated. Your father and husband obviously earned your love with his own, and you're all in our thoughts.

If we can help in any way, just ask.

Jane and Ray Foushee - January 19, 2007 at 10:47 AM

AM

“ Papa-
I have so many amazing memories with you and I'm so proud to carry on your name. Not only did you help bring me into the world but I think we both kept Baskin-Robbins in business and you always seemed to remember my favorite "pink bubblegum" and "Mint Oreo" ice cream. Thank you for making my spring and summer breaks in Destin so eventful.....go-carts, putt-putt and Old Bay Steamer crab legs just won't be the same without you.

The night you moved on to be with the Lord was the most amazing experience and I'm so happy I could be there to walk and hand you over to the man who loved you all along. I miss you but I know that you will be waiting for me.

*Your one and only,
Amanda "Amandita"*

Amanda Arguedas Meyer - January 19, 2007 at 10:10 AM