“ You all have my deepest, most heartfelt sympathies. I went to school with Dwayne, sang with him, graduated with him, and considered myself fortunate to call him my friend. He was always one of the best looking, funniest, most fun-loving, goodhearted boys in school. I am so sorry that I am only now learning of his passing upon coming home to visit family that still lives in Frankfort. Dwayne will live on in the hearts and minds of many, many people I am certain, as he will mine. The world will be a little lonelier place without him here. May God hold you in his tender care and give your hearts ease.
