“ I always admired Eddie. I have a lot of fond memories of our ball games together. He always put up with my young ignorance in so many respects. My prayers are with all of his loved ones. The neighborhood won't be the same.

“ Eddie was such a fantastic person. Easy going with a great laugh and patient demeanor that made everyone want to be around him. His service to our Country made him a genuine hero, yet growing up and using equipment my dad and his farm pal Warner Hines bought on the cheap to tend the farm in Peaks Mill made Eddie more than a hero. In fact he was a “savior”to the rest of the family members. He would arrive on the scene, share a deep body moving sigh, offer a quick joke and a jovial chuckle, followed by a verbal “Oh my what do we have here, “ and when he said “ I got this, “ we knew disaster was averted.

A class act from a classy family. He will be missed, but always respected and appreciated.
