“ I want everyone to know that Libby was a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother and friend to many, many people. I will always remember her smile and how she always made me feel right at home and at ease no matter what the situation. I know the family will truly miss her as will all of her friends but now little Bradley has his Granny to rock him to sleep every night in Heaven. Sheila, Billy, Debbie and to everyone else in the family....God bless you all.
