“Ava and Arlene, i am saddened by the news of Mr. Allison passing away. I did get to talk to your dad when i was surveying in Duckers Point one day. As always, he took time to talk to me and of course we talked about the good ole days when we all went to Memorial Baptist. He also talked about working with my dad at Jim Beam. They spent many years working together. John always thought the world of Mr. Allison. He was a great person always taking time to talk. I am so glad i was able to talk to him a few years back. I enjoyed every minute of it. Please accept my condolences and may God bless you all and the family.
