“ Viembre, you don't know me (we may have met once??), but many years ago I lived next door to your Dad on Elm Street. I was saddened to read in the newspaper of his passing. I just wanted to say what a great guy and good neighbor he was. He was friendly and funny and willing to help. I always enjoyed our chats in the yard or driveway. I am very sorry for your loss.

We have donated to the Wounded Warriors Project in his honor. Viembre was quite right- he would have wanted us to continue helping veterans. She should get a card in a few days. (I am Vernon's grandson, the bald guy in the picture above.)
