“ Oh Elmer, I will miss this man very much. He was one ball of fire at the poker table. I liked his wit and personality. This unfortunate happening was a very sad unexpected surprise for I was just playing poker at the same table with Elmer last Saturday in Louisville. He was a great friend and inspirational character. He will be remebered with the best of men forever and ever. My Condolences to his family and Velma. (We met at Johnny Carinos one time...) XoXo

“ I want to extend my condolences to Elmer's family and friends and wish them strength with the loss of our poker buddy. We will miss his wit, his fire and humor while playing. He was one of the unique characters that we truly enjoyed playing the game with. Looking at the loss of Elmer in poker terms... someone made a bad call on this one.

We will miss you Elmer.

“ We were friends a long time ago when Bonnie was with us. I worked with Bonnie at Taylor Drug Store for several years and we became good friends with her and Elmer. He was always joking and having a good time. Sorry for your loss. We will miss both Elmer and Bonnie.
