“ I remember the first day Eric walked into Quad . He never knew a stranger. He became friends with everyone he came in contact with. Then the day he found out he was going to be a father he was scared but happy. Then he found out it was a girl. He became nervous again we talked about the day she would start dating then she was born and he assured me there wasn't a guy in this world for his baby. The long talks about taking care of himself and his diabetes. I was Happy to find out that he got the pump. It eased my worries. Because he would always let his work get in the way of his sugar dropping. I remember one day running to the cafe to get him something to get his sugar up OJ. I found a jelly pack after that day he would always show me he had a jelly pack close to him. He will be missed by many

“ We did not know this young man but know Connie and Paul. My mother and father Bubby and Polly were great friends of theirs for years. We have such good memories of good people. We are sorry about your grandson leaving you at such a young age. Mom and Dad lost their great grandson 4 years ago and it's such pain. May God wrap his arms around all of you. With all our love .
