“ Anita and Charles, I am so sorry to hear about your mom. Your family is one of the first families we met when we moved to Frankfort, and your mom did a wonderful job making us feel welcomed. I have so many fond memories of your mom and dad, especially when I got to help out at the bakery. I will always remember your mom's smile, laugh, and her jewelry that she was never without. I wish I could be home for you but please know that all of y'all are in my thoughts and prayers. God Bless you both.
