“ Good-bye, Evelyn! What a beautiful experience I've had with you . . . and your wonderful daughter. Please help put the right words in my mouth as I help Elizabeth through this terrible loss in her life. I hope I can grow with the grace, feistiness, and wisdom you did. You were a loving person, and let me assure you, a very loved person as well. Thanks for all; our loss is God's gain and your heavenly reunions will be all the richer.

“ I will miss you Granny. You took such wonderful care of our whole family. Everyday you would show your love to all of us. I cannot thank you or express enough appreciation for all of the times you took care of me and "our" babies, Dylan and Macey. I can only thank you now by keeping my word in watching over my mom, and I promise I ALWAYS will. Hug my Daddy for me and tell him I am happy. And give kisses to Granddaddy and Nannie. I LOVE YOU!
