" I go to prepare a place for you "

These were the departing words of Jesus to his disciples; his final words before going to the cross.

The grave is not our final resting place. Christ speaks of resurrection. For him, the place of death, the grave in the garden, became the place of resurrection and life. So too, he promises us a place. He says "In my Father's house are many mansions," literally many rooms, many dwelling places. There's a room for you and a room for me.

An unknown poet has written:

Think of stepping on a shore, and finding it heaven; of taking hold of a hand and finding it God's hand; of breathing new air, and finding it celestial air; of passing from storm to tempest, to an unknown calm; of waking up and finding you are Home!

“ Les and I are thinking of you and your loss. We are so sorry but know Evelyn is with her mom and dad .
It is so hard to try to understand the "Whys" but only GOD knows the answer. All things happen for a reason! Eventually we will all learn what the answers are.

“ Brad, I was so sorry to hear about your mother's passing. She was a very great lady, almost regal in her bearing and very professional at work, but she had the most wonderful laugh and the kindest eyes. Please know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. Hugs, Karen

“ Dear Brad, Greg, Steven and Dee, your Mom was like a second mother to me. I will always remember her as kind, intelligent and fun! I'm so sorry you have lost her. My Mom died six years ago and not a day goes by that I don't think of her. I so wish I had her around today to share my happy moments with, along with some of the sad. Please know that my thought will be with all of you as you go through this transition of being a child to a parentless adult. Love,
Miriam

“ My thoughts are with you; having just lost my own mother March 20, 2009, I understand your loss and your pain. I only met your Mom once but she made me feel welcome in her home as if I were one of her own. If there is anything I can do please let me know.
