“ Dear Laura,

I was sorry to read about the passing of your grandfather Ray Moore. He was a good friend of my father and mother-Allen and Halcyone Holt. He was such a gentle Christian man. I always enjoyed visiting with him at Ashwood. I know you will miss him greatly.

Sincerely,

FranCrumbaugh

“ So sorry for the death of your grandfather. Ray was a very fine man. When I was a young girl, I visited with Ray and Doris (my first cousin) when they lived in Louisville. The last time I saw him he was at Farmer's Kitchen for lunch. He ate there quite a bit, and they knew what he would want before he ordered.
