“ *Mary and family, you are in my thoughts and prayers as you and your family work through the loss of your mother. There is nothing that is as sincere as the love of our mothers. I know God will give you the strength you need at this time as always.
With fondest memories my friend.

“ Raymond, Charlie, Cindy, Justin and Chaz,
I'm very sorry to see Mrs. Austin has passed away. I would save my lunch money just so when Friday came I could get a dip cone, and not to mention her hamburgers was outta this world. I can still see Charlie working the grill and learning how to cook but Mrs. Austin could not be beat in the kitchen. I know she is better off but her presence will be missed greatly. Take care guys and God be with all of you in days to come. Timmy Meriwether
