“ *Dear Jennie & Josh,
I know that there is nothing that I could ever say to take away your pain but know that I am always here for you. Any time you need to talk or a shoulder to cry on I'm here. You all will be in my thoughts and prayers.*

Rachel - January 24, 2007 at 11:44 PM

“ Dear Josh and Jennie, I understand what you must be feeling now. Nothing in this world could be said to help with your broken hearts now but in time you will see her again and you will hold her in your arms again. Just remember she's sleeping in the arms of Jesus. What a beautiful sight that must be. My love always. Aunt Brenda

“ The Bible tells us that if we have the FAITH of a tiny mustard seed we can move mountains. A tiny little seed was formed and before it could fully develop she came into this world to move some mountains. Her little presence moved so many and made everyone realize how short life is. We are so sorry for your loss, Gina, Josh, Jennie and Joshie. May God comfort you during this time and know that we love you.

“ I'm so so sorry. I just wish that there was something that I could say that would make some of the pain go away, but I know there isn't. She was a beautiful child and she will be looking down on you and letting you know each and every day that she loved you.

“ Jennie and Josh, there is nothing we can say that will make this situation any easier for you. But what we can tell you is that no matter what, we love you all and we will be here for you to lean on anytime you need us. Faith is so beautiful. And you guys are too. And you couldn't have chosen a more perfect name. We love you all! And we're here when you need us.

“ Jen, Josh. Your both great and loving parents. She was beautiful. I know you both prolly think that maybe there was something you could have done. But you everything you could have and now she's in heaven with our loved ones and they will take care of her. I love you both very much and I'm so sorry that you had to be put through this. Just remember you have friends and family who love you and love Faith. P.S. I think the name is perfect just like HER!!
