“ I worked with Fay at Employment Services as my summer job for four years back in the 1980s. She was a joy and absolutely had the best sense of humor. She was so sweet to a very green college kid that probably was more trouble than he was worth. I'll never forget her ! Deepest condolences to her family

“ Faye was just a sweet person, I just knew Faye for a short time, I remember the first time she came in the door at Calvary she and I hit it off. Don't think she missed a time she didn't say there's my buddy or turn to someone and say he's my buddy. Faye was much more than buddy to you and me, someone was saying to me that she sent 100's of cards. always putting someone else before herself. I could go on and on. I'll close with this, here's to you Faye my sister in Christ, we will always be buddies. Faye will be miss by all who knew her.
