“ Dear Faye,

I just wanted you to know I was thinking of you today, September 16, on what would have been your 50th birthday. You and Granny and all the rest of the family can let us still here know what a celebration you had today when we meet you up there.

Love, Debbie

“ Faye and I knew each other from the first year at "Bondurant Junior High" (now Bondurant Middle School). She was always smiling, always friendly. Over the years we'd meet here and there and talk sometimes for hours catching up with one another's lives. I can hardly believe she is gone and am saddened by that fact. Faye, when you get to the other side, watch for me! Missy

“ Just a quick note to say Thank You for all the prayers, I am at Peace with all of this. Mom is in a much better place now than we are. Mom would not want this to be about her death but to celebrate her life here with us. All is going to be OK with me I have the support of my family and friends but most of all I have GOD with me and he has made me stronger than I ever thought I could be with the loss of my mother. I LOVE and miss her more than anyone will know I have a special bond with my mother and she is always going to be around me and her Nick Nick and she always told me that she would watch over us and I have already seen that since her death. She will always live in our Hearts and memories.
With love to all,
Natasha Hardin

“ Sorry to here about the loss of your mother. She will be greatly missed. Always had a smile on her face no matter what was going on in her life. Childhood memories hanging with the girls (Natasha and Kristi) were worth cherishing. Faye was always the highlight of visits when we were kids.

“ Natasha & family,

I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. Faye was wonderful person and loved by many. I just recently started seeing Faye every day here at work... she worked downstairs from where I work... I will miss seeing her beautiful smile and hearing her precious laughter.

“ Faye was one of a kind. I am so thankful that she was in my life. She taught me so many things in our short years as friends....to name a few, she taught me how to paint (or how not to) and she taught me how to cook one mean roast. She taught me not to call her if I wanted to watch a movie without her figuring out the ending as soon as it started. (heehee) I miss those days.

I've heard the term "laughed till I cried" all my life, but Faye is the only person I've ever seen actually do it. She carried a smile in her heart and never met a stranger.

This world is a lonlier place without her in it, but I know she is at peace.

"Rest well dear friend, I'll meet you on the other side."

“ Natasha,

I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. Faye was always so good to Triston and myself. I'll miss her, and Squeak will miss her. She said "now Granny can't make me tea". That was always their little thing. God rest her soul, and God bless your family.

“ Tash,

Our hearts are heavy today. We already miss Granny's laughter and her gracious heart. She has been a part of our lives for 12 years now and I can't imagine the future without her. We have many wonderful memories and for that we are thankful. Thank you Tash for sharing her with me and my family. We will always have her in our hearts and she will never be forgotten.

*Our deepest sympathies,
