“ Scott, Matthew, I was so sorry to hear about your mom, grandmother. She loved the two of you so much, and lived for the VTC so she could see and hear you when you were so far away. She was a wonderful lady, so sweet and so nice to me. She and I loved to talk about our beloved sons. She is at peace in God's Hands now.

“ My condolences go out the family of this very sweet and wonderful woman. I had the pleasure of working with Ms. Anne at the bus garage and she was always a warm and wonderful smiling face to come in and see. A person that was honest and very loving. I have not seen her in a while and wish i had known she was ill. i would have loved to have seen her or help her in anyway that i could!! her kindness and friendship will always be with me!!!! she was a very loved grandmother to every person she met and received a lot of love and respect from anyone that new her!!!! i will keep a prayer in my heart for her being at peace now and for her family at this time!!!! May god bless her family!!!!
