“ Forrest was a man of God and loved the Lord above anything else. I had some good laughs talking with him on the phone but he couldn't hear a word I was saying. Forrest had so much patience in his Sunday School trying to teach us hard headed boys. I can just see him now running up and down the streets of gold. I will surely miss you!!

Forrest was our scout master at the Nazarene Church. He spent a lot of time with us and sharing scripture. When I would call Forrest to talk he was always praising Jesus ,and telling me of blessings he received from neighbors. He was always giving scripture before we hung up.
