“ We're so sorry. My sisters and I would come from the farm behind Stagg Distillery to visit our Aunt/Lydia Baxter and we'd all walk to visit with all "Nannie's" friends on Oaklawn. Ms. Rutherford, Ms. Kimball was the sides of 120 Oaklawn. Ms. Rudder and Ms. Walpert across the street. It would be the all the "girls" getting together for a tea party with lemonade and sweets with lots of girl talk. She's still as beautiful as I remember with that great smile!
