“ So sorry that we were unable to be with you at visitation. I finally got the strength to get there and when I arrived, there was a long line of visitors and I was afraid my legs would not hold up long enough to get in to see you. Please know that I will always have fond, loving memories of you and will never forget you and your friendship. I will keep your family in my heart forever and if I can do anything to help Brenda I'm a phone call away. Rest my friend, will miss you forever.
