“ Bob & Cindy and family, I was sorry to her of your moms passing, Unfortunately, I have not been able to get back to Frankfort for some years now but I always enjoyed going to see her whenever I was in KY visiting Dick's mom & dad (Margaret & Si). Between her & your dad you could always count on a couple of laughs from them that left you feeling just a little more light hearted. I Really enjoyed looking at all the pictures of your beautiful families. May God bless all of you. I will keep her & your families in my prayers. Mary Arnold

“ Bobby, Cindy and family, Tom and I send our condolence to you all. Aunt Gladys was a very special person and we loved the times we had with her and with Uncle O.B. You all were so lucky to have had her as your mom and grandmother. We have many memories, Tom more than me of course, of our visits to their house when Tom's mom and dad (Margaret and Si) were in Frankfort. She loved her family that is for sure. And she could and would put on quite meal for all of us when we were in town. With all our love, Tom and Donna Arnold
