“ *I am so very sad to hear of Gwen's passing. Gwen was such a major part of all of my school years, such precious memories. I couldn't even count how many days we were at my house or I at hers. She loved my Dad and Mom, she thought my Dad looked like the lion on the Wizard of Oz and she thought my Mom was hilarious. We had such fun. Her passing is beyond heartbreaking.
May the Lord walk with John and her family through the days to come. Goodbye my dear friend, Rest in Eternal Peace with the Angels.*

“ *I was sorry to hear about Gwen's death. My sister in law, Beth Boldt Moran told me about it and I was actually on my way to Midway to visit with Mom, Mabel, and the girls. I loved kidding Gwen about U of L and UK. Her smile and answers were so precious, especially when I would ask if she wanted dessert. She will be missed by everyone at The Homeplace.
God Bless you all.*

“ Dear John & Family, My heart is heavy for your great loss. Gwen had a beautiful smile and was so friendly. We were always in the same home room at Seneca. She was fortunate to play the roles of wife, mother and (the ultimate) grandmother. May God embrace her family with perfect peace and comfort. She will be sweetly remembered. God bless.

“ My sincere condolences go out to all of the family and friends of Ms. Cubine. Please remember the inspired words from the bible found at Isaiah 26:19 and Acts 24:15 which is a sure hope for our dear loved ones. We can receive a measure of comfort now in the words recorded at Isaiah 57:15 and 18. It is impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2); therefore, we can rest assured that these and all of His promises are sure to come to pass. Revelation 21:3-5.

“ Dear Kristen and Family, I hate to hear of the passing of Gwen. She was one of the first people I met when we moved to Frankfort when Kristen and Kate started first grade at Elkhorn. Even though we had not seen each other for many years, she always remained one of my favorite people. We spent a lot of time together way back in those days. I remember one time just after Jack was born, she told me, "Patty, get you one (grandchild.) Whatever you have to do, just get one." I hate to see that beautiful smile pass from this earth.
