

Harding Henry Clay

January 12, 1944 - August 7, 2013

Services for Harding Henry Poochie Clay, Jr., 69, will be conducted at Harrod Brothers Funeral Home at 11:00 a.m. on Tuesday, August 13 with visitation beginning at 10:00 a.m. Interment will follow at Greenhill Cemetery. Rev. Donald Townsend will officiate the services.

He was born on January 12, 1944 in Frankfort, KY to the late Harding H. Clay, Sr. and Maria Davis Clay. He departed this life on Wednesday, August 7, 2013.

Harding attended Lincoln Institute in Lincoln Ridge, KY for a couple of years, but graduated from Frankfort High School in 1965, where he was the first of a long line of Clay football players in Franklin County. He worked for and retired from the State Department of Parks.

Harding was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers James Benjamin Clay and William Michael Clay.

He leaves to mourn his passing and cherish his memory nine brothers: Danny, Sylvester, Thomas, Gregory and Bruce, Frankfort, KY; Robert, Washington, DC; George, Jacksonville, FL; Roger, Boynton Beach, FL and Victor, Houston, TX; three sisters: Ann Clay, Roberta Tillman and Tina Cummins, Frankfort, KY and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

A repast will be offered for family and friends at V.F.W. Post 4075 on Second Street following the service.

Arrangements are under the direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home.

“ I grew up around Harding at the Dept of Parks. My mom worked with him and his office was just down the hall from her. I would go and talk to him or just to say hello in passing. A very kind and sweet man. He will be missed. So sorry to hear of your loss.
