“ I will miss Herby. I would look for him every Sunday whether in foyer or at his favorite seat in the sanitary to the right near the back. Typically he was sitting with Kaye and Mike Triplett. He would have that big smile and as I approached he would shout out how abpit one of the sports teams we followed from the Reds in baseball season, to his beloved Wildcats during football or basement ball. We had fun as I am a Louisville Cardinal fan and we would have fun with each other depending upon the most recent game or season outlook. He was never harsh just good ribbing. One Sunday he waiting on me and noticed an extra big grin. As we finished our greeting and latest game updates he said. “I have something for you.: He handed me a bag and inside was a large UL insulated cup with a bright red Cardinal. I use it every day and keep it on my desk. It has even more significance now.

When I heard he had it I was concerned. I remember his liver transplant and some other health bouts over the years. When he went to the hospital more but even then fully expected to see my friend again. He was a fighter. Then the very sad news Herby had gone home with his Lord. I am going to miss my buddy.

So I say see you later Herby. I will always remember our friendship, your kind and gentle spirit and your passion for the C A T S. I will find you at a front row seat sporting event and we will catch-up on all you have been doing and show me around.

God bless,

“ Remembering the days at Uncle Ray and Aunt Ann's all the Cheser and Young kids playing. Herby told us that his teacher called him 'Herb Cheezer' of course he was always Herb Cheezer to all from then. A good sport in taking the teasing. He was a sweet heart. So sorry for your loss. With our Deepest Sympathy.

“ Herby was a friend of mine. I like to tell a fun story about Herby and I. I had to go Va Hospital in Louisville after having Surgery on my Sinus. Herby told me that he would take me to Va Hospital in Louisville I had have drivers to drive me. I said ok. The Doctor told Herby that he had to leave the room. Herby told the Doctor that he is ok with it. After the Doctor took all the tissue out of my nose and blood was running down my face Herby got sick over top a trash can so I drove us home. Herby was good friend I have not seen him in view but he was a good friend of mine. RIP my friend.
