“ Every time I look at my brother Ronnie, I see your face Uncle Howard. He has that same layed-back way about him just like you did. I have specific memories of you and Jean while visiting MyMy ! I can remember walking across the way to avoid having to use her dreaded outhouse and I can still see your silver Christmas tree with the color wheel light so vividly, and several visits with mom (Mabel) to see you and Jean. Mom still talks about her siblings with such fond memories. You are still missed today! As I am trying to piece together our Hardin Family Tree/genealogy, I am reminded of how precious our time here on earth really is. We never really know how we impact the lives of those around us. I will cherish my memories of you always and those shared by your sister Mabel (my precious mom) who loves and misses you dearly. We love you Uncle Howard! We miss you!
