“ *Lagene, I was so sorry to learn of your Mom's passing. Your Dad was our minister when I was a young girl in Frankfort. I don't know whether you remember me or not but I had a sister, Virginia and Coleman was my brother. We went to Elkhorn School and lived on Crestwood Drive. Your Dad was a good minister and we felt so proud going to the Crestwood Baptist on E. Main Street. We moved to Florida many years ago. Just wanted to say how sorry I am and to let you know you and your family are in our prayers. My heart is still up in Frankfort with all of our friends.

“ I know this has to be the wife of Brother Kitson that was our minister at East Hickman Baptist Church. I also was friends with Lajeane when we were in the first and second grades at Shelby School. This was many, many years ago. My little Mom is still living. I send to you my condolences. Mary Switzer Roser
