Mrs. Horwitz died Friday, November 13, 2009.

She was born July 3, 1911 to George Thomas and Lelia Harrod Dailey. She was the wife of Louis V. Horwitz, deceased. In addition to her husband and parents, she was preceded in death by her brothers, Aubrey Dailey, Harry Dailey and Howard Dailey and her sister, Helen Dailey Hawkins.

She is survived by her daughter, Melodye H. Kinkead (Shelby) of Versailles and her son by marriage, Arthur J. Horwitz (Joan) of New York, New York; her granddaughters, Elizabeth Kinkead Descarpentries (Christophe) of Albuquerque, New Mexico, Alex Kinkead Mason, also of Albuquerque, New Mexico, Jan Horwitz Abraham (David) of Merion Station, Pennsylvania, Lisa Horwitz Booth (Henry) of Coatsville, Pennsylvania, her grandson, R. J. Horwitz of Grafton, Massachusetts, her great grandchildren, Ina Elizabeth Mason, Lola McCall Mason, Louis Carneal Descarpentries, Jordana Abraham, Juliet Abraham, Rose Abraham, Laura Booth and Nicholas Booth; nieces, Brenda Hawkins Tipton (Bill), Anne Hawkins Morgan (Rudy), nephew John Dailey Hawkins, and her beloved nephews who are serving as pallbearers. Mrs. Horwitz was born in Wewoka, Oklahoma. Shortly after her birth, her family returned to Kentucky to their farm in Swallowfield, a small farming community in Franklin County. She loved farming and assisting in managing the farm all of her life. She was a member of the First Methodist Church of Frankfort, the Frankfort Country Club, the Homemakers Garden Club and the American Rose Society. She shared her passion for gardening with her husband who created Melodye Park, a Frankfort landmark, open to the public for many years before it was flooded by the Kentucky River in the 1950s. She had many hobbies including photography, quilting, dressmaking, needlepoint and embroidery. She had a great love for the River and in her younger days enjoyed boating and surf boarding with her husband. Her first love was her family. Throughout her life she was devoted to her Mother and Father, her sisters and brothers, nieces and nephews, children and grandchildren. In her later years she was devoted to her caregivers, especially Judy Powell.

Contributions in her memory may be made to Hospice of the Bluegrass/Frankfort office, 208 Steele Street, Frankfort, KY 40601.

Arrangements are under the direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home LLC and condolences may be shared via the online guest book at www.harrodbrothersfuneralhome.com.
