“ SGM Hill and Kay,
God comfort you and keep you! The pain of losing our children is worse than any other. Remember you will be together again one day, where there are no tears or pain.
Your dear son helped me and has helped my mother in Pic Pac many times. I know J.D. learned to be kind and considerate of others from his parents. Bill, I can't count the many times when I worked in the EOC that you assisted me and others.
I came Monday at 5:30 and had to leave by 6:00. What a long line of friends who loved J.D.! I saw several Batman shirts, didn't know whether J.D. liked Batman, but it seems they were wearing them in honor of him. We were not able to get to the sign-in book or to speak to you, the line was so long that we had to leave by 1800. My heart goes out to you, standing there greeting those paying their condolences. I did the same, with my son Justin. I was on autopilot, numb and going through the motions because it had to be done. God give you strength and comfort.
This Bible verse gives me peace:
2 Peter 3:8-10
8) But do not ignore this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years like one day. It says that God's time is not man's time, that whether we live 1 day or 100 years, our lives are precious to God. And it says that the long wait until we are with our loved ones again will seem like the blink of an eye when we hold them in our arms and see their beautiful faces in heaven. It will be as if they never left.

“ I was there when you were born. I was there when you passed away. I watched you grow and change every step of the way. I remember everything just like it was yesterday. I will miss the talks and visits we had with each other. My heart is shattered knowing there will never be another tomorrow. I love you always and forever baby brother. Until we meet again...

“ Bill & Kay,
Our hearts grieve for you as you will mourn the loss of JD for quite some time. We can only imagine how difficult your sorrow will be from such an unexpected loss. Although we didn't know JD, I think you can take solace in knowing that you did your best to raise him to become a good man. As I told you before, call on us day or night if you need someone to listen. We love you both. Mike & Deb

“ So sorry for your loss. J D was very special to our family. He always greeted me with "hello mom" when I went into Pic-Pac. He was there for our family through good times and bad times. He will be greatly missed by the Harts, but we have lots of happy memories of him. Our thoughts and prayers are with you in the coming days. We truly loved J D.

“ My heart hurts for Kay and the family. I have such fond memories of this little boy at Mammaw's. He was so sweet and kind to Lindsey from the day she was born and although they parted ways, they never forgot each other and always recognized each other in public. In fact he even remembered me when he would see me a Pic Pac. You have our deepest sympathy as your son/brother/friend always held a special place in our heart. I still have the toy JD gave Lindsey for her first birthday (that's how special he was). You all will be in our prayers and although I do not know what you are going through I know that God will give you the strength to endure. RIP JD.
