“ I will forever remember my friendship with J.W. He was always so kind to me, and full of humor. He would allow Jay, Brian, and me to park at the house and walk down to the creek to fish. I always looked forward to my returns to Frankfort and the possibility of tracking J.W. down so we could have a chat and catch up. We've been gone from Frankfort for 12 years, but my memories of him are like yesterday. I, along with Carolyn and the rest of our family, offer my sincere sympathies to Dorothy, Greg, and the rest of the family. John Hornback.
