Ms. Marilyn, Artisha and Derek,

I just saw in the Frankfort State Journal where Big Jack passed. I sure do remember all those times in your back yard we played football and at the baseball and softball field. Jack meant a great deal to me growing up. Love you all and sure will be holding you up to Jesus Christ during this time. He's with the Lord Jesus and will be waiting for you. Of that I have no doubt.

*In Him and His Mercy and Love,
Chad and Marsha Hockensmith*

Always enjoyed being around Jack. Both of us being in National Guard and working full time there. He was a prankster and he loved pulling them. He will be missed dearly. Rest in peace brother in arms.
