“ On behalf of the School of Education at Kentucky State University and myself, I want to express deepest condolences to Mr. John Morgan and his family in the loss of their loved one. While I did not know Mrs. Childs, the opportunity to meet her son and to have him as a co-worker has given insight into the kind of caring woman that she must have been. We pray that your family will be comforted by their memory of your life and that your legacy will live on in their lives daily.
