“ So sorry to hear about Jimmy's passing. I worked with Jimmy during my early years in the National Guard Recruiting command. We would travel around the state displaying the National Guard's Liberty Bell. My wife and I got to know Jimmy and his family pretty well. The best thing that I remember about Jimmy was his smile and his positive spin on just about every thing, and his coffee in his sugar.

James Barber - June 10, 2020 at 03:53 PM

“ Sorry to the family for your loss. James's mom, Cinderella was my moms best friend. I really loved her dearly.

Terry Howard - June 10, 2020 at 10:34 AM

“ Jimmy was always smiling and kind. He never forgot his Kentucky friends. RIP Jimmy.
