

James Coleman "JC" Cohorn

August 20, 1952 - January 16, 2016

Frankfort - Services for James Coleman J. C. Cohorn, succumbed to his long time battle with cancer on January 16, 2016. A Frankfort native, he was a long time resident of Lawrenceburg. J. C. was born August 20, 1952, the son of the late Kellie and Mary Cohorn.

J. C. attended Franklin County High School. He previously worked for Ace Vending and Capital City Tool. In 2012 he retired from General Cable in Lawrenceburg.

J. C. was an avid hunter and fisherman. He loved spending time with his grandchildren and teaching Savana how to hunt, fish and shoot. He was actively involved in the former Wilderness Trail Chapter of the National Wild Turkey Federation (NWTf).

He is survived by his wife Vada, daughter Stacie Akers (Kori), and grandchildren Savana Belle and Axyl Jayce Akers. Additionally, he is survived by special friends, Randy Peyton, Scott Horn, Randall Ripley, Mark Ripley, Donald Chesser, Carl Stump, Betty Steverson, and his beloved dog Winnie.

A Celebration of Life Service is planned for Saturday, January 23, 2016, at 3pm at Harrod Brothers Funeral Home with Pastor Randy Peyton presiding. Family and friends may visit at the funeral home Saturday beginning at 1pm.

Casual attire is welcomed.

The family encourages you to leave condolences via the online guest book at www.harrodbrothers.com. Arrangements are under the direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home.

“ Vada, I was very saddened to hear of JC's passing. JC was a good man and I consider myself fortunate to have known him. I was thinking back on the times we had a chance to chat at Glomar and it brought a smile to my face because I always enjoyed talking to JC. Vada, you and your family are most certainly in my thoughts and prayers. Thinking of you and I pray for the Lord's presence, His peace and His comfort with you at this time. We were blessed to have known him here on this earth and now Heaven welcomes him and rejoices to have him there. With my love always and prayers for you at this time.
