“ Jimmy was a dear friend. I first met him when we bowled in the same league at Capital Bowl where he would always (to no avail) give me tips to improve my bowling. Later, when I began attending Faith Baptist Church with a friend, I saw that he was a very active member there. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. Love and prayers to Lana and Marcia.

“ Although Jim and I have known each other since we were in grade school, we have become very close in the last fifteen years. He has been the "rock" that kept me grounded with his wit and wisdom. He loved his church deeply and I know he is now with his JESUS forever. He will be sorely missed by all that knew him.

“ Jim always remembered me every time we passed each other. With patience and much care, he helped build my house 35 years ago. I think of him as one of the best people I have had the good fortune to know in my lifetime and will remember him for how he made me feel when he worked the order desk at Lowe's.....he never let me down, never lost his interest in my project and made me feel as important as the biggest builders in Frankfort. I regret that his time has gone and that I will never again have an opportunity to laugh with him.

“ My favorite memory of Jim , is almost every single morning he would be at his mail box getting his newspaper, and we always exchanged banter. Definitely a warrior for the Lord and I'm sure he's still singing Gods praises in heaven. Love and miss you

I first met Jimmy when my Dad would take me to Lowe's after he started his drywall business. Continued that friendship as my life went on. I know the girls and my prayers go out to Marcia and Lana. He was one of the good ones.
