

James "Jim" Hubert Martin

June 12, 1943 - November 20, 2022

James "Jim" Hubert Martin passed away peacefully in Frankfort on Sunday, November 20, 2022.

Jim was born in Canton, Ohio; he grew up in West Virginia, until he was in high school. His family moved to Frankfort, KY where Jim picked up playing football for the Franklin County Flyers and made his very best friends for life. Jim was a retired truck driver, builder and carpenter. Building was his passion and he continued to work and supervise after retirement.

Jim was preceded in death by his wife of over forty years, Darlene Schiller Martin, his parents, Hubert and Jane Martin and his sister, Susan Martin Hutchison.

Jim is survived by his seven children: Rodney, Jodie, Susan, Jimmy, James Brady, Angie and Nikki, along with 13 grandchildren and his siblings Frank Martin and Mary Jo Martin Hoover.

A private service will be held.

In lieu of flowers, please consider sending a donation to Bluegrass Hospice Care at <https://www.bgcarenv.org/give>

Arrangements are under the direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home & Crematory.

“ Jim and Darlene were my neighbors when I lived in Frankfort. Jim and his friend Frankie built an addition to my house. He was very particular and exact, definitely needed on a construction project. I didn't see Jim or Darlene again after I moved away and I'm sorry to hear of their deaths.
