“ Jimmy you will be missed. You were a hard working, dedicated, loving, kind hearted husband and father. My favorite memory is the day I saw you in your front yard with a fly swatter in hand after your little dog. That day I laughed and laughed because anyone would have thought you were after a child but you were disciplining your little dog. Now you have no pain, may you rest in peace.

“ Jimmy was a friend to all of his coworkers and very much respected. He would tell us about his grandchildren with so much pride. He will be greatly missed by many.
