“ There are so many memories of Don and they all boil down to the main thing. Don loved his family and friends and wanted to take care of them. He did it by the big things, making sure he provided a home and support, and the little things, getting up in the morning and making coffee for everyone wherever he was. You will be missed my friend.

Linda: I just heard about Don's untimely passing. My family will keep you in our prayers. We lost a good one when Don left this world to be with his Savior, but our loss is his gain. I'll always think of him at work with me and while visiting your home. As the song says,

*"Go rest high on that mountain
Son, your work on earth is done
Go to heaven a-shoutin'
Love for the Father and the Son"*

May you find peace in these words. I know I miss him already.
