“ To the family of Jimmy Tate, I offer my heart felt condolences to you. I knew Jimmy really well, I worked with him at columbia gas for many a year. Jimmy was a good man and he would keep you laughing all the time. He taught me the meaning of saving your money. He said , the reason i was broke on monday was cause i spend my money on things i didn't need. You know something he was right. After that I did not have to borrow money from him to eat lunch all the next week. Beleive me I respected Jimmy for being my friend and co-worker, who taught me how to do my job at the gas co. again, God bless all of you and remember , He's not gone, Just resting until we all can see him again.
