“ Jamie was such an independent sort and so full of life. She did not let the cards that life dealt her slow her down in living it to the fullest. I was honored to be one of the performers that Jamie enjoyed coming to see. I will truly miss seeing her and she will always be a wonderful memory for me. God bless you Jamie.

“ Jamie was one of the greatest people I've ever known. Her spirit was never dampened and her strength was amazing. She refused to let her physical limitations stop her. I always admired her for her determination and willpower.

Our thoughts and prayers are with her family during this most difficult time.
