“ To Greg and Family: I met Janet when we worked together in Governor Brereton Jones Office and we were friends thereafter. Although we did not see each other as often as we wanted, Janet, Jessamine Saufley and I always had a wonderful time together. I was so shocked to hear of her passing. She was a beautiful, smart woman with great compassion and love for others. She will be greatly missed by me and many others who had the pleasure of knowing her an spending time with her as she walked on this earth. God bless you an yours.

“ I so enjoyed working with Janet at the Grand Cypress where we had the best res team ever. Once I moved to Wv and was working at the Greenbrier, we continued to stay in touch, especially when she was doing her Kentucky duties. My heart is sad but will always remember her great laugh and kind spirit.
