“ May God wrap his loving arms around you, Em, Tyler and Natty. May He comfort you and give you peace. May His light shine down upon you to give you clarity and understanding.
I can't think of a time in my life that I didn't know and love Jason. He was always there when I needed him and vice versa. Always smiling and joking. A devoted father to his 2 children and his loving wife Emily. Now he is in Heaven cracking jokes and building something. Rest in peace my dear friend.

“ The pain of a loss reflects how deeply our hearts have loved.

God knows the depth of your love and only He can bring the comfort your heart needs. I pray He will give you peace and strength as you go through this time of grieving. With deep sympathy.

“ So sorry for your loss. I met Jason many moons ago as a sweet and polite young man, working in my in-laws furniture store. As time went by, we reconnected as our sons played soccer together, we would see each other from time to time on the soccer field. He was always so very kind and complimentary of everyone...I will never forget that about him. I also remember him being a loving Father. May he rest in peace. Please know that you will be in my continued thoughts and prayers.

“ I am truly sorry for your loss. I worked with Jason for many years at L&N Glass. It was funny that we are distantly related but we never knew each other until we started working together. Jason was a great guy and a loving father. I pray that God will give your family comfort during this time. My thoughts and prayers are for your family.

“ Jason was a great guy, when I would run into him over the years, he would always brag about his family, show pictures of every one and talk about his job. He was a proud husband and father. You all are in my thoughts. I hope good memories help you through this very difficult time. I am so sorry.

“ To the family of Jason, I am sorry for your loss. He does rest in peace now. No more pain , no more sorrow. I too was a school classmate. I remember Jason being the class clown. He was always being silly and made everyone laugh. As hard as it may seem right now, the good times, the special times is what will get you through this difficult time. To his wife and children live as you would if he was beside you, he is in your heart and in spirit everyday. You all are in my prayers.

“ We are all so sorry for your loss. We know you are all hurting so much right now and everyone is asking "Why". We loved Jason and had a good time talking with him whenever and wherever we saw him. He loved his children so very much...and loved talking about them. He will surely be missed by anyone who ever had the privilege of knowing him. We still find it so hard to believe. Just know that you are all in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

“ Jason was a great guy! I pray for his family and friends and especially his kids. That they may find peace amongst their heartache. And to let them know that we all have you in our thoughts and prayers. And even though Jason maybe gone he left a little of himself in every persons heart that he met through the years. He was a schoolmate, a fellow graduate and a former coworker of mine. Best of all I can say, even though i haven't seen him in awhile,he was a friend. God Bless his family! And Rest easy my friend.
