

Jean McCoy

October 22, 1946 - May 12, 2024

Jean Ann Disney McCoy, 77, also known as “Nanny” passed away on Mother’s Day, Sunday, May 12, 2024.

Jean was born in Harlan County, Kentucky. She was proud of her Eastern Kentucky roots.

The Disney’s moved to Frankfort when Jean turned twelve years old.

She is survived by her loving husband of 58 years, Bill McCoy; daughter, Angela McCoy Hornbeck; son, Greg McCoy; grandchildren, Heather McCoy Stamper, Amber McCoy, Addison Hornbeck, Lillian McCoy; great-grandchildren, Jordan Clayton Landry & Kylee Ann Landry; brother, James Robert Disney; and by several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Mildred Cross Disney & James Henry Disney, grandchildren, Trista Shoemaker & William McCoy, sister in-law, Cha Disney.

Jean enjoyed spending time on her houseboat at Turtle Creek Harbor and being a member at Sea Club IV in Daytona, evening dates at Casa Fiesta, and being with her grandchildren.

Her unwavering love, home cooking and unfiltered jokes will be forever missed, and her legacy will forever impact those she left behind.

We will be hosting a Celebration of Life for family and friends at Limewater in Frankfort, Kentucky on Sunday, May 26, 2024, at 2:00 p.m. with special guest Elvis Presley per her request. Join us for a final toast to Jean Ann Disney McCoy.

The McCoy family asks you to kindly donate to the American Stroke Foundation in memory of Jean. Americanstroke.org/donate

Arrangements are under the direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home & Crematory.

“ Jean was a very beautiful young lady. She always put her family first and was enjoying the other children in the family. I remember when I first met her and we were close friends for a number of years. My heart goes out to Bill, Angie, Greg, and Amber. Ahh Disney
