“ I am saddened by JD's passing. I have written to her and phoned, leaving messages until the voice mailbox was full. Jean Davis and I have been friends since the 1970s, when we met in NJ. We corresponded over the years, talked by phone, and sent each other gifts. I am shocked at her passing and will miss her more than I can say. I last spoke to her in March and today I saw the obituary notice and service information. I currently live in Little Rock, and am not able to travel to Frankfort, but Jean Davis is on my prayer list. My condolences and prayers go out to her family. Carol Curtis

I grew up with JD being a lifelong friend of my mother. She was like an aunt to me and will always be in my heart.
