“ Oh, Jean, what the loss of you has left the world a colder place. I have known you well through our tournament and traveling golfing; you have been my guest and I have been yours. We never had any bad times between us. Just smiles and joy. Dave and I have had 56 years; you and I both were teachers; we lived right on the golf courses we loved. We even shared the same politics (shhhhh!) I could talk with you about anything. Your loss leaves a terrible void for me and others. I would have loved to go to your service but we are having a family crisis here too. Rest in peace, dear friend. My prayers are with John and the rest of your family. Lou Cheese
