“ Jenny Lou and I were friends in high school. I always felt safe hanging out with her because she seemed wise beyond her years. We always had fun and she was quick to laugh but nobody better mess with us or she would take them down! She has fought a hard battle for many years and I hope she is now at peace and spreading her laughter. I am praying the memory of her love for Rodney, Ryan and her family will bring all of you comfort

“ Years ago Jenny asked me to do some exercises classes at her house for her and some of her friends . We lasted about 3 weeks meeting once a week cause we would get so tickled at each other and laugh till we were crying. She encouraged me to go back to school for paralegal studies and was always supportive when I would panic about my classes. She will truly be missed. Prayers for all the family.

I met Jenny her first day at FCHS, We became bff's fast. Connie Cox, Jenny and I also became the terrific trio very fast! We spent many Many nights tooling around Frisch's in Jenny's army green Corvair with a big hole in the driver's side back footboard w With a big piece of cardboard covering the hole And my feet holding it down! We spent many many hours talking and giggling and of course crying in her bedroom downstairs. We were always together! We soon added Tricia Shy to our trio!! We even got our dates and went to Prom together! She was a one in a million and I cherish my memories of her. Rodney we loved both of you! Your wedding was perfect except for my crying. Your first Apartment Was perfect! We were also thrilled when your Ryan was born!
