“ My condolences on the loss of Jerry who always had a big smile on his face and was loved by most. He will truly be missed as he goes to a better place with God and the suffering has passed. Our families always had strong ties and he was another piece of the puzzle that was put here years ago to help keep that bond. Tommy, take care, and that also goes for Aunt Mae and the girls who would keep me posted on his welfare. Frankie Boy

“ To the Calhoun Family:
May God's Grace and Mercy be with you during your hour of bereavement. God cares. Although I left Frankfort, Ky. 24 years ago, I remember the Calhoun family. I also knew some of the family through my association with Kentucky State University. -The battle has been fought, the victory won, so Gerald has entered with the Master for Joy. For now, it is good night over here, good morning over there. If there is anything that I can do, please do not hesitate to contact me. Judith Perkins, Jeffersontown, Ky. 40299
