“ So sorry for your loss, I had no idea. Mr. Redmon as I always called him was the nicest man I have ever meet. I loved running into him an Mrs. Redmon whenever I was out and about in Frankfort. I was very close friends during my early teens with their son Jerry (Jr), my first love. He, James, Blue, Kathy and I would hang out on my porch all the time, or I was at their house when they lived on Holmes Street. I sure do miss those times. Would love to see everyone and catch up. I haven't seen Jr for about 37 years, we have both changed and grown from the silly teens we were. I haven't seen James in probably 35 years. Nancy it has been maybe 30 years. I will never in my lifetime forget this family!! Love an miss you all

“ My poppy was a wonderful man that worked hard his whole life. His smile and jokes would light up any room and he loved his family dearly it didn't matter how you came as long as you came. He's hug you the same. I love you poppy. Save a spot for me.

I remember Jerry very well. He was always most friendly and it was an uplifting experience to talk with him. His ministry reached a lot of people. May God provide comfort to those he left behind.
