“ Jerry and I met at the clerk's office in Frankfort ten years ago or so. He became someone I consider a friend. He was always in there either buying or selling something, I liked him so much. He made me laugh and was always kind to me. He was good to my Daddy too. If I'd known the last time would've been the last I would have told him how I felt. Life is like that though. I'm so so sad to hear of his passing. I didn't see him daily, but knowing he has left this earth breaks my heart. I hope to see him in Glory one day, I'll give him a big ole hug. Love you Jerry.
